

THE LOVE OF A LIFETIME IS CLOSER THAN YOU THINK...

How the Meet to Marry Method™ can help you find the love of your life in the next 3-6 months without settling, compromising, or lowering your standards (even if you've struggled to find love for decades).

Featured in Match.com, JDate, & SELF

Stephen Covey praised Meet to Marry™ as “...smart, principled, and engaging.”

Do you deeply long for a lifetime partner -- but would rather be alone forever than 'stuck' in (another) disappointing relationship?

---

I get it. I've been there. And for the last decade, I've helped countless singles just like you.

Because here's the truth:

I bet in every other area in life. You are a badass.

I'm sure you have a fantastic career, remarkable friends, and days filled with a wide range of interests and hobbies.

...But in your love life, it's not as rosy.

You are not looking for just anyone...

You want an extraordinary, empathetic, connected, partner in crime. A relationship that offers intimacy, safety, fun, passion, and adventure.

Someone to watch Netflix on the couch while eating pizza, and someone to travel the world on whirlwind vacations. A partnership with "the" ONE who always has your back, matches your values, and wants to share everything for a lifetime--with you!

That's a conscious relationship. And it's POSSIBLE.

(Yes, even if you've been single for what feels like forever.)

Inside this book, I've compiled fantastic love stories from our clients who have found that kind of dream relationship -- many within just MONTHS of working together.

Finding healthy love is POSSIBLE for you regardless of your age, background, history, or how long you've struggled. What seems impossible and insurmountable now -- can be transformed within months by using The Meet to Marry Method™.

Meet to Marry Method™ has helped thousands of people find their life-long partners, and I wanted to share a sampling of their stories. Now, these are not unicorn clients. These are REAL stories that we hear every day of REAL people who used our method and found love. And now, we share those stories with you.

Why should you care about someone else's 'love of a lifetime'?

*Because I believe you'll see a part of YOURSELF. And when you see yourself, you'll also see... it's POSSIBLE.

Not too long ago, these clients were in the same position you are now. Exhausted, frustrated, stuck... and believing that maybe love just wasn't meant for them.

But then they found a proven PLAN for finding love. One that completely revolutionized their approach to dating -- and was so much fun in the process.

This is The Meet to Marry Method™, and as you read, you'll discover how it's different from therapy, seminars, books, match-making, or traditional love coaching. Based on solid principles, transformation, spirituality and science, it will change your view of yourself, dating and relationships forever!

I hope that as you explore these stories, you'll keep an open heart. Because your breathtakingly beautiful love story is about to start.

xoxo,

MEET TO MARRY™ LOVE STORIES

The breakthroughs our clients experience make them feel clear and confident in ALL areas of their life and that finding their soulmate is the direct result of this work.

There are many favorite things (already!) in this program. So, top favorites are: 1. Bari. She truly has our back and remains accessible - her coaching is warm, yet direct. She brings this all to life. 2. The SPECIFICITY it inspires and requires. Loved getting tangible and clear on my goals, personality traits, emotional needs, and top things I need/want in a life partner. 3. Bringing me back to my TRUE ESSENCE was a gift. No more old, disempowering vibe - onward with the "real" me. I also love that your Thursday calls aren't cookie cutter, but instead, you update/adapt based on what we need or are struggling with. This and your warmth, directness and practicality set you apart from the others - so glad I joined!

When Jodi joined our program, she thought guys perception of her was that that she had it all figured out, or that she might be too good for them, even though that is not how she felt at all. In spite of doing a lot therapy and self development she wasn't meeting the right guys and wanted to change it. She wanted to be with someone inspiring, with emotional depth and an edge. "I convinced myself I couldn't meet this kind of man in San Francisco!" Because of Meet to Marry™, Jodi met Dennis, her soulmate right there in San Francisco and they were married within a year!!!

I had a great experience

I had a great experience, and connected one of my friends to this organization as well. I continue to stay in touch with Bari and connected to the M2M community!

Getting clear on what you want, is the only way to find what you need.

Tina had a goal to get married by 26, but she realized she needed to switch up her approach when she passed that goal by nearly a decade. She wanted to attract a Christian man who shared her values (that she was also physically attracted to) but struggled with finding only unserious men. After our work, she met and married Marvin -- the wonderful, fun-loving, Christian man of her dreams!

CAN MEET TO MARRY™ WORK FOR ME?

For the past 11 years, I've been on a mission to free people from unconscious relationship patterns, teach them how to become whole and integrated within themselves and to approach finding their soulmate from clarity as Empowered Daters.

An Empowered Dater is in the driver's seat of their love life. They have a real plan to find and date only the right people, has mapped out their vision for a dream relationship, and attracts a partner who wants to live and feel the same way.

Our process's magic is in showing people how to be true to themselves and meet their own needs before anyone else's.

I believe healthy love is available to anyone who is willing to take this leap with me.

And I do mean ANYONE.

It doesn't matter if you've been divorced 3 times, never married at 50, have 5 children and 3 cats, live in a remote village, or just starting your dating journey...

As you'll see, we have stories from people of ALL walks of life and relationship history.

I've heard every excuse on the planet:

But I've been single for YEARS...
But I don't believe the kind of partner I want exists...
But I live in the wrong place...
But I need to lose weight...
But I'm too independent and don't "need" anyone...
But I keep attracting the wrong people...
But I have major trust issues because of my past...
But I've tried everything; it's just not in the cards for me...
But I'd rather be alone than in another wrong relationship...

And the ONLY one that's viable is...

| ...But I haven't tried the Meet to Marry Method™!

This process transcends ANY obstacle to help you attract the RIGHT people.

Unlike most programs, we work in 2 distinct phases to do the inner AND outer shifts and create a real plan to find love. Nothing surface level here. We work from the inside out.

No more dates who “look good on paper” but you feel no connection or attraction...

No more “hoping for the best” or wearing rose-colored glasses...

No more dodging “red flags” over and over again and saying you’d rather be alone when that’s not your dream...

No more wasting your time, energy and money on band aids, random books and YouTube videos or fixing yourself...

No more thinking your love life will just work itself out by sheer determination, meditation and time...

No more telling yourself that you can’t have it all in love when you want nothing more...

No more lonely nights, weekends and holidays without your one true love to really see you, support you and have your back...

It’s that simple. Explore the love stories beginning in part 2 of this document and see for yourself!

We work in 2 distinct phases to create success.
It’s a strategic plan for love.

Found lifetime love and partnership with the love of her life and a perfect role model for all her kids.

After her 14 year marriage ended, Sarah, mother of 4, was alone, living with her children - a toddler and 2 teenagers in her mothers home. It was a hard, exhausting life where she carried all the weight of raising and supporting her kids. Sarah wanted a true partner to love and honor her and her children. # WHY MEET TO MARRY™ WORKS:

The Problem

Bottom line: The traditional approach to dating has failed you.

But NOTHING is wrong with you.

You are not broken.

And you're definitely not destined to be alone.

Love IS your birthright. You've just had poor modeling, A LOT of crappy advice on how to find it and no plan.

1. | Love doesn't just 'happen.'

I know it looks that way in movies -- or on Instagram -- but that's not true!

Tell me one thing that you've become successful at that just HAPPENED?

Did you just happen to get that promotion at work?

Did you just happen to graduate from law school?

Did you just happen to get good at playing guitar?

No, of course not. You had a plan, you had mentors, you did the work, and you found success...

| ...Love isn't different.

I know we're taught we should just naturally be good at 'finding love,' but that's also not true. Being good at finding love, can be LEARNED -- just like any other skill.

When so many of my clients first come to me, they tell me they feel 'silly' for hiring a love coach.

But did you feel silly for having a professor in college, a personal trainer, or a health coach?

Of course not. Every successful person you admire had a mentor to take them to the next level. It's just smart.

Repeat after me: Love isn't different.

The sooner you can shift your mindset and have a structured plan, the sooner you will be able to find love.

How to find your soul mate...

Meet To Marry provides a comprehensive program to help those who wish to end their single status once and for all. This course requires a deep dive into your own psyche to uncover your blind spots and create a newer vision and practical plan to find a life mate. Bari provides unbeatable support but you get out what you put in!

I personally never dreamed after a divorce and years of dating that I could be so happy in a relationship.

"Bari never let me settle."

Malka Cohn

Yesterday at 10:27 AM

My new husband Dr. Jeff Singer and I got married on Monday afternoon. We cancelled our 'wedding' event and had an outdoor chuppah with a bare minimum of 2 Rabbis to conduct the ceremony. My 4 kids stood in the wings and our families and friends were present via zoom. My kids whipped a gourmet meal and we drank Champaign, made toasts, danced and spoke out our dedication to work on being a family. I always felt that no man would want to marry and 'take on' 5 kids. Bari never let me settle. It felt like a dream to hear Jeff tell my kids how much he loves them and feels honored to be part of their lives and has a chance for 'Yiddish nachas.'

May we all use this time to cherish our dreams and ourselves and make room for healing and G-d's goodness.

2. | Therapy is NOT a Plan for Finding Love.

Therapy is GREAT. I have nothing against therapy. BUT it is not a plan to find love.

Why? Because analyzing the past doesn't change it and won't help you take the bold action you need to find your soulmate.

I work with so many successful, highly intelligent, super self-aware people. Many of them have been through therapy and KNOW what the problem is in their dating life.

But KNOWING what's wrong doesn't SOLVE what's wrong.

If it did, you'd be married by now, right? (I say this with 100% love!)

Instead of putting the responsibility of finding true love in your therapist's hands, The Meet to Marry Method™ gets you back in the driver's seat and empowers you to take back control in a way that's fun, future-focused and life affirming!

3. | Books and Seminars Don't Bust Blocks

Books and seminars are fantastic-- for reading at the beach and networking for work...

...But not for finding love.

Again, KNOWING what's wrong on an intellectual level is not enough. You need a framework to DO the work required in your romantic life.

But sadly, far too many singles stay stuck JUST because they never learned the RIGHT way to find their ideal mate for a lifetime.

Very few of us are ever taught how or given a model for a healthy, loving relationship.

When we're blocked, we unknowingly attract people who can't see us and can't meet our needs. We're so afraid of being hurt that we hide. Even when you're going out on dates and sharing your vision, you're STILL vibrationally hiding to protect yourself, meeting people you're not connecting with. This really wastes time. And the ones you are interested in don't see you. (And this happens even if you're a good person or very well intentioned.)

Hiding doesn't always mean spending your Saturday nights alone on the couch bingeing Netflix.

Hiding often happens on a subconscious level.

And it usually affects more areas of your life beyond dating.

After starting this powerful, action-oriented, transformational experience, most of our clients level-up their entire lives--not just their love lives! They often improve their professional and familial relationships -- even increase their income, get promotions or make big changes that are more aligned with their true purpose.

When we are blocked in love, we can be blocked in abundance because we don't see our value.

That's why books and seminars won't cut it. They just provide information not TRANSFORMATION.

But The Meet to Marry Method™ will give you the right steps on the right foundation. 😊

“I can compare MTM to a personal rebirth, because it allowed me to shed unnecessary layers and reconnect to my inner beauty and power. This created an opening to attract true love.”

It's not about going on MORE dates. It's about going on the RIGHT dates.

Pamela was living in Bogota, Columbia and wanted to meet her soulmate but her community was small and her dream was to return to the US but men weren't taking her seriously. Working together we blasted through the barriers to love, Michal learned how to be an empowered dater with a plan, how to filter suitable marriage-minded men, and move past geographical challenges. # WHY MEET TO MARRY™ WORKS:

Mystery Dating vs Empowered Dating

What does dating feel like to you? Check any box that applies!

☒ Powering through LOTS of dreaded dinner conversations with bad dates.

☒ Constantly dodging red flags.

☒ Attracting people who look good on paper, but disappoint in the end.

☒ Getting your heart broken again and again and again and again.

Did you check them all? Thought so.

That kind of dating is what I like to call “Mystery Dating,” because you never know what kind of disappointment you’re going to get! 😞

Mystery Dating not only keeps you single, but it also keeps you BUSY.

Busy going on uninspiring, disappointing dates.

Busy settling and hoping for the best.

Busy investing in relationships that leave you frustrated and disappointed.

Busy going to energy-healing, meditation retreats, and yoga studios.

Busy wondering how you could still be single when you’re such an amazing person.

No wonder dating feels so exhausting.

Change Your Life: Work with Bari

I wholeheartedly recommend working with Bari. She not only changed my mindset about dating, she changed it about relationships and love in general. Every moment I spent with Bari, with her coaching, and with her enthusiasm for life made a difference in how I approached relationships. Bari is one of my trusted "brain" partners and I will always feel deeply connected to her. I deeply respect her as a coach and as a human being. Make a life changing decision for yourself: Work with Bari.

Unfortunately, Mystery Dating is how most people date. It's based on interests (things they like to do) and chemical attraction instead a true connection based a real foundation -- shared vision, core values and life goals -- and of course, real attraction.

But here's the GOOD news. Because you are the creator of what you don't want, it means you can be the creator of what you DO want.

And you do that by being fully ready within yourself to invite in your soulmate and then becoming an Empowered Dater to find that person with clarity.

The opposite of Mystery Dating is Empowered Dating! Empowered Dating is built on a healthy foundation of self-love, inner peace and clarity. It starts with getting super clear on who you really are, how you want to feel in a relationship and how to be laser focused in finding that person without dating wrong people, so you never have to settle, compromise, or play stupid 'dating games.'

When you are an Empowered Dater, you don't have to go on a bazillion bad dates, dodge red flags, or waste years, if not decades of your precious life with go-nowhere relationships.

In fact, most of my clients find love in just 90-120 days and marry within a year!

Plus, this work will shift your mindset and open up so many blessings in your life beyond love. Many of our clients end up making more money, improving non-romantic relationships, and feeling so much happier and joyful that other people take notice! One client said it should be called a whole life transformation!

They feel so clear about their vision that they KNOW they will find love. And that confidence and clarity are endlessly powerful in ALL areas of life.

Meet to Marry Success Story!

I signed up with Meet to Marry in 2014 after years of dating the wrong guys, wasting money on dating websites and unsuccessfully working with therapists. Bari and the Meet to Marry program start at the beginning and takes you step by step through the Meet to Marry program. Once I graduated and had met someone Bari was available to me via email and cell phone to help me continue on a path towards marriage. With Bari's support I was able to meet someone, have a healthy relationship and finally got married at 50 years old for the first time. Bari helped me create my vision of marriage and achieve it. I strongly recommend this program for anyone looking to for marriage and willing to do the work. This program is not a matchmaking service, but rather helps you become the best partner and find your best partner.

WHY MEET TO MARRY™ WORKS:

The Strategic Plan

Guessing. Hoping. Wishing.
Praying. Waiting.

-- OR --

Going on a bazillion horrible
dates or stop dating altogether

These are often the two options we're presented with in finding love.

But there's a much better way...

Getting a PLAN.

Think about it: You wouldn't throw a party without a plan. You wouldn't bake a cake without a plan. You wouldn't go on vacation without a plan.

So why do we think we will be able to find LOVE without a plan?

Probably because society has told you, "It'll happen when it happens" but NOTHING in life works like that!

Self-development is beautiful and positive -- but it's mostly "conceptual" and feels good at the time. But it's NOT going to help you summon your soulmate without a proven plan in place. So it's (past) time to quit dating on autopilot, cultivate a future-focused mindset, and get unstuck in love!

What does that look like? It happens in 3 main steps:

1 | Remove the internal and hidden barriers to love from the past that hold you back from being your true self and keeping you from a warm, loving relationship with the right person.

2 | Define what you want and need -- and how you will feel -- in a loving, safe, joyful relationship (and embody that way of being to invite your soul mate into your divine life).

3 | Make a REAL plan to meet the right people. Now that you've cleared the cobwebs and defined the love you were born to experience -- follow through. (And yes, committed, big-hearted souls ARE on dating apps!)

All 3 steps are critical, and most of us can't do them all alone -- that's why I created The Meet to Marry Method™ -- so we can work through these steps quickly to build YOUR plan for finding THE ONE.

Met and Married

I met Bari Lyman by chance in 2013 and her Meet to Marry dating program changed my dating life! Bari incorporates a diversity in technique and expertise in her program that makes it like no other. Sophisticated, clever and spiritual - Bari Lyman is a compassionate and no nonsense genius. Bari helped me get clarity around my fears, hangups, blockages and dreams. I was then ready to learn a new dating strategy. I wrote out a vision for how I wanted my life to look and am currently living it. When I finally met the one we were engaged within six months and married seven months later. If you are serious about finding the one, believe in yourself, by investing in this program you are investing in yourself.

Watch Sarah's Video

Because here's the truth that might blow your mind:

Just like setting a date to graduate or move into a house or host a party -- you can set a date to find love and get married.

I know, I know! That goes against ALL traditional dating advice. BUT why would dating be different than anything else in life? Like I said before, it's not!

Our clients set goal dates and meet them..
It happens ALL THE TIME.

Because creating a plan for love WORKS.
It just does.

MEET TO MARRY™ METHOD: Why Now?

A better question is... why not now?

There is no perfect time to fall in love. But you've waited long enough to find your soulmate... So why wait any longer?

For many of us, 2020 showed us in big ways how precious life is, and self-isolation has given us time to reflect on ourselves and our vision for the future. While loneliness and desperation may start to kick in around this time of the year, making it easy to fall back into unhealthy dating patterns - you have another choice.

You don't have to wait to make your dreams of finding and marrying your soulmate come true.

You can start doing the foundational work and taking empowered actions to get you closer to finding love - TODAY.

But you have to take the next step.

Bari Lyman's Course is Life Changing.

This course was life-changing in so many aspects of my life. Once Bari helped me identify my blind spots and guided me through the work to get those unstuck, I was able to access a level of self-love that I had never experienced. This led to big changes in my life like quitting a job that wasn't working, selling a place that was too much of a financial burden, and finding joy in the experiences that were unfolding in my life. Dating camp also gave me the courage to go online on the apps which I had generally shied away from. It gave me the clarity to describe myself and what I wanted and led me to meet some amazing people. This course was the best thing I could have done for myself. I am truly grateful I found it.

IT'S YOUR CHOICE!

In the end, YOU are the only one who has the power to change the future of your love life. So you have two choices...

OPTION A | You can stay stuck in a cycle of bad dates and relationships that go nowhere...

Thinking that finding your soulmate just isn't in the cards for you -- as you see all of your friends enjoying loving, nurturing relationships.

Continuing to isolate yourself and stay lonely, attending every holiday party and family get-together alone (OR stuck as a third wheel with friends when you truly desire to be with your true love).

Pretending that you don't need anyone, and that you're too intimidating though you long to meet someone who is inspiring and solid, accomplished, loves you for who you are and supports you in everything you do.

Saying that your dream partner doesn't exist when you know in your heart that they are out there just waiting to meet you.

Wasting your time on approaches and guesswork that don't get you any closer to true, healthy love as you struggle on a roller coaster of optimism to disappointment.

Dodging red flags to avoid more disappointment, and wondering why the ones you're interested don't even notice you when you have so much to offer.

-- OR --

OPTION B | You can find a CLEAR path to true healthy love with support the whole way... ♥

---

Walking away with the confidence you need to find the person you will marry and spend the rest of your life with.

Committing to a process that will help you find your soulmate - someone who loves you unconditionally and supports your dreams for the future.

Changing the old paradigm of repeating patterns from the past of choosing wrong people and instead designing your love life from your truth and true value.

Spending your time on the things that will get you closer to true healthy love as you take a new empowered and principled approach to dating.

Ending the loneliness and isolation by giving your time, attention, and love to someone who wants the same things you do.

Discovering a new experience of yourself feeling refreshed, alive, free and happy connected to your joy and your essence instead of feeling damaged or not enough.

Remove and transform trust issues and walls that repel love and instead, discover yourself newly by embodying your wholeness with clarity to step into a healthy relationship for life with someone you can trust!

Having the words, skills and tools to recognize your soulmate knowing how to nurture a conscious, healthy, growing relationship that will continue to expand and thrive for a lifetime. enough.

Just do it

I highly recommend this program. The most valuable aspect of it is that you learn to think and see the world in a new and healthy way - something that's valuable in any aspect of your life. For me, I used to sort out healthy guys without knowing it and being emotionally drained at work because I would overthink every step I took.

Bari is authentic and fully committed to your success. She lives what she teaches in this program. You have her as your biggest role model and inspiration. Before signing up, I watched several of her videos on the website to understand a little the way she thinks and talked to her before.

This is a non-phoeny, super straight forward approach for anyone who really wants to find true, healthy and lasting love ❤️ (And yes, it exists!!)

KNOWING what's wrong doesn't solve the problem.

Rebekka had done therapy, read every self-help book, worked with other coaches, and felt like she already knew what was wrong. But knowing isn't a plan! Fortunately for Rebekka, we got to work, created a PLAN, and in a few months, she found a deep, loving, adventurous relationship with her wonderful man, Tim! She discovered a brand new love for herself, more energy for her relationship, and a clear vision of her future. Now, Rebekka and Tim are married AND have a beautiful baby Richard.

WHY INVEST IN LOVE?

We invest in our education. We invest in our careers. We invest in our homes. We invest in our health.

Then why don't we invest in our love life?

Because when you get down to it: What's more important than love?

Seriously! What else affects our happiness, our well-being, our day-to-day joy so deeply?

The Meet to Marry™ process doesn't begin by teaching you about Empowered Dating... First, it prepares you for healthy, lifetime love -- true relationship readiness as a foundation for success...

Why? It's principled: To find the one, you need to BE the one...

It starts with clearing out all the goop that's blocking you from healthy love -- then creating an actionable plan to find the RIGHT partner.

I'm not here to send you on endless dates. I'm here to help you to discover a clear path to your soulmate.

"But my sister didn't need to hire a love coach."

"But my Aunt says 'It'll just happen when it happens.'"

"But my friend says it's a waste of money."

I call BS.

We are ALL on different journeys, and we ALL need different support in different areas.

Some of us need a personal trainer, or nutritionist, or business coach -- and some of us need a Love Mentor.

And just like a personal trainer can help you get better results, faster -- that's my job with your love life!

Only, unlike those weight goals -- my results last a lifetime. (And have a ripple effect in every area of your life!)

Seriously! This work moves far beyond love and creates life changing transformations in so many other areas of your life.

Marisa had a great life in NYC working in marketing, raising her 5 year old daughter, but her most important dream was to find her soulmate and have another child. Even with her dating coach and therapist, she couldn't transfer that success to her love life. After our work clearing out all the blocks -- she got 100% clear on what she wanted out of a relationship (and what she needed), and soon, as an Empowered Dater with total clarity and an open heart, she met Ben, who made her feel how she deeply wanted to feel in a relationship! They have a new baby together and her daughter adores Ben.

Why invest in love?

Bottom line: Investing in the wrong relationship OR staying single is surprisingly costly -- emotionally AND financially:

The average divorce costs $80,000 in legal fees and net worth. That's not to mention the time and energy spent fighting in court and dealing with unresolved emotional loss.

If you yearn to create a biological family, but can't find a partner past your most fertile years -- options like egg freezing and fertility treatments cost TENS of thousands with no promise of success.

Neglecting your needs affects overall health and well being. When we don't feel worthy we fill that emptiness with overeating, Netflix, overworking or remaining in underpaying (or unfulfilling) jobs.

Unhealthy coping strategies only gloss over anxiety, loneliness, lack of physical touch, endless people pleasing, codependency, or even PTSD-related symptoms and can be EXPENSIVE.

There's also a cost to our children's wellbeing when they don't see us receiving the love we deserve. This may even cause them to emulate the same negative romantic patterns afflicting their parents in the next generation.

HOWEVER, on the flip side, investing in yourself will ALWAYS save you money, energy, time, and make life endlessly more enjoyable:

Improving your health!
Potentially reducing medications!
Dissipating stress at its source!
Building stronger relationships!

We even see many of our clients excited to take more risks in life, find higher paying jobs, start new businesses, and build closer bonds with their children and family members.

So instead of wasting time and money on temporary bandaids -- true investment in LOVE with a LASTING solution benefits EVERY area of your life!

Pivotal point in my life

I signed up for this course after several years of being single, and after some personal emotional and financial losses. At the time, when I discovered the course, there were two other courses I was evaluating, but Bari's practical approach and breakthrough discovery session she did with me convinced me that her course was going to give me the support, tools, and education to shift my life to the next level. There are two parts to the course, and it's done in a methodical way (like a real course). There is no therapy, there's practical work, reflection, discussion, exercises and yes Bari's advice. Additionally, there is the support group of all of the other people who are processing the course like you including your accountability partner. Well, in a nutshell, I completed the course, and within months, the man I have waited my whole life to meet turned up in my life. It sounds like a fairy tale, but it happened to me, many others, and I can only thank Bari and her method for helping me get into the mindset and rhythm of dating to literally meet the one. We are planning a life together, one that I had wanted for so long of shared bliss. Thank you Bari for all that you do for me and for all of us.

Some of our clients have even...

Doubled their income and got promotions

Developed the courage to start businesses they put on hold for years

Made big career changes that were more aligned with their truth

Created healthy boundaries and ended toxic relationships

Developed closer and more empathetic relationships with family and friends

Solved lifelong health challenges

Grew a deeper sense of self and overall peace of mind

Overcame depression, emotional eating, people pleasing and overworking

And more...

...just to name a few examples! Now tell me, what is that worth?

Rod, 68 Phoenix, AZ

Rod is a funny, talkative man who found himself single and totally frustrated at 68. He thought he knew what he wanted in a relationship, but did he? He was convinced he couldn't meet the right woman for him within 30 miles of Phoenix, Arizona. The women he'd been dating were all focused on their grown children and grandchildren and he often felt left out and lonely.

All of this added up to frustration, and it seemed irresolvable to him. He wanted a relationship with someone who cherished him, made him feel special and wanted to focus on their life together, but he just couldn't seem to get there on his own.

Then Rod began his Meet to Marry journey and everything changed! He learned about himself, uncovered his blocks from the past, discovered his true needs in a relationship and he became an Empowered Dater!

Rod met Bev on Christian Mingle and said that from the first phone call with Bev, "the conversation flowed naturally." Bev moved to Phoenix, from Minneapolis and they talked about their fabulous plans for their lives together that included time with her children and grandchildren since Rod did have family of his own. Rod described feeling like he was "walking on air" with Bev.

"Without your encouragement, I would not have been able to do it."

Rod has a great sense of humor and he said jokingly, "There's no accounting for some women's taste or lack thereof. She even likes my humor."

Rod and Bev got married in December 2017.

MEET BARI LYMAN

A mentor who walked in your shoes.

---

Hi! I'm Bari Lyman, founder and creator of the Meet to Marry Method™ and I'm on a mission to help you rediscover yourself and your wholeness and find your true love and perfect match – your best friend – without waiting, settling or compromising anything.

For more than a decade, my revolutionary method has helped countless single men and women of all ages and backgrounds..

The Meet to Marry Method™ has led people just like you to experience the quick and powerful breakthroughs that put them on the fast track to meeting and marrying their extraordinary lifetime love within just one year.

But before I created this method -- I was right where you are now.

What seems like a lifetime ago, I started dating a very handsome, charming man. We went on magical dates, he made my heart race when he entered the room, and I really thought he was THE ONE.

--- Until I discovered he was a closeted drug addict.

Then I started dating another 'great' guy. We also had this electric chemistry, he swept me off his feet, and again I thought I had found THE ONE.

--- Until I discovered we didn't really share values, religion, and he didn't love the best parts of me.

I continued feel stuck. For YEARS I dated man after man who looked good on paper but ended up being total narcissists who broke my heart.

Every time it happened, I became more and more devastated. How could I be so attracted to these men who provided NO FUTURE?

The truth was, I had NO idea what I was doing. I lost years 'fixing' men, making excuses for bad behavior, and hoping they would change.

Like you, I was really starting to fear I would never find healthy, true love and partnership — and marry someone who loved me as I am.

I WAS ALREADY IN MY LATE-THIRTIES, WORRIED IT WAS ALREADY TOO LATE.

I had already spent YEARS in and out of therapy, invested time, energy and tens of thousands of dollars on personal growth work, seminars, books, energy healing, yoga and more, and while it was useful, it was all conceptual -- I was NO closer to feeling whole within myself or finding healthy love.

I realized there was a difference between knowing intellectually what my problems were, and actually CHANGING them.

What I needed was a PLAN.

And since that plan didn't exist, I developed it myself.

And that plan led me to a new experience where I finally stopped relating to myself from my blindspots and hidden fears to becoming an Empowered Dater with a clear vision.

With a new and healthy foundation, and the inner space for love to thrive, I dated in a new, principled and empowered way. . .

...And it led me right to Michael — my amazing husband, the man who is my best friend and life partner — with whom I share a wonderful, nourishing, fun and adventurous life.

We've been married for more than 15 years now and have designed the life of our dreams -- living on a beautiful nature preserve in Florida, cooking and enjoying plant-based meals, watching movies, growing organic fruits and vegetables, volunteering, travelling, spending time with our rescue pets and community, designing new spaces in our home. . . with big goals for the future since we're always creating together.

I finally have the love I have always wanted with a real partner who sees me and always has my back, and now I'm here to help you find the same.

Since developing The Meet to Marry Method™, I have helped single women and men just like you to find deep, connected, lasting relationships -- like the amazing stories you'll read below.

Now it's time to see how it can work for YOU.

MEET TO MARRY METHOD:

A Clear Path To Finding Healthy Love

What is A Clear Path to True Healthy Love?

A Clear Path to True Healthy Love is built on the Meet to Marry Method™ and is a 90-day program where you'll blast through the inner blocks and then create an actionable plan for inviting in your soulmate. Plus, you'll receive ongoing support UNTIL you find the one!

This isn't a DIY video series filled with lectures on how to hypothetically find love...

A Clear Path to True Healthy Love is an immersive program that provides clear and actionable strategies and opportunities to apply those lessons with high-touch support and accountability.

I've broken the program down into 2 essential phases: Inner Shifts and Outer Shifts.

This 2 phase approach creates lasting transformation quickly so you can find your soulmate in MONTHS not YEARS. The experience creates the foundation for what most of us never learned about love, intimacy and relationships, it builds as you progress, and is based on principles, spirituality, science and a strategic process-driven plan.

Phase 1: Inner Shifts

Identify and fix what is holding you back from finding true love and keeping you in a cycle of unhealthy and disappointing relationship patterns.

Clear out and transform the barriers to intimacy that manifest as fears, doubts, insecurities, incompletions, and limiting beliefs.

Break free from the past so you're no longer dating unconsciously or recreating childhood challenges and trauma in every relationship.

Discover lifelong tools to stay in healthy, empowered mindset enabling you to create a conscious, growing and healthy lifetime relationship on a real foundation.

Build a healthy mindset that allows you to open up space inside yourself for true healthy love to thrive.

Design your relationship vision, core values, and life goals as you integrate and embody it all with total clarity.

You'll finish this phase with a newfound clarity on how you can break free from what's keeping you stuck in love and move forward with clear goals.

Sick of dating games + HR Professional + Thought love wasn't in the cards for her

Amazing things happen when you stop wasting time on bad dates!

For Rachael, dating felt like a total waste of time. She was already juggling caring for her mom, her career -- and then these guys would just string her along for weeks or months. Working together, through the Meet to Marry Method™ She got super clear, and future-focused on the kind of relationship she wanted to create and she took new actions with clear vision -- so it was easy for Rachael to filter in the right matches. She even cut a date off at 7 minutes, because it was clear they weren't a match. Now Rachael has found HER ONE with Joe, and they got married in a Zoom ceremony during the pandemic!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What makes this program different?

Unlike most coaching programs or traditional therapy, the Meet to Marry Method™ is a structured program. It's based on principles, transformation, spirituality and science and is designed to permanently change your view of yourself, dating and relationships. There's nothing conceptual about it. It's a proven process. We do the work in a highly supportive environment that's focused on getting results and creating a lasting transformation that will have a ripple effect throughout your entire life.

Most of our clients have tried other programs and other coaches and they report that the biggest difference is the personal attention they receive, how it's not theoretical or conceptual, and it builds to create lasting change that even years of personal growth didn't tackle.

How do I know if Meet to Marry™ is right for me?

Meet to Marry™ IS for you if:

You're committed to finding your soulmate and living a deeply connected life.

You're generally successful in other areas of your life (career, home, business, education) but just can't seem to find success with love no matter what you try.

You have a history of choosing emotionally-unavailable or 'wrong for you' partners over and over again -- and you're READY to make a change (and see permanent results)!

You're tired of investing time and energy attracting disappointing relationships. It's time to stop the pattern of settling or ignoring your own needs -- forever.

You tend to avoid your feelings with chronic distraction -- staying busy, taking care of everyone else and "working on yourself" -- but nothing has helped you find love.

You are beyond ready and willing to do the work to identify and break through the blocks holding you back from love.

You want support in your journey to keep yourself accountable and on track to achieve your healthy love goals.

You're DONE with superficial dating advice and empty promises. You want a REAL actionable plan for finding the love of your life, NOW!

La Shay kept dating the wrong men for 20 years! She tried going to church groups, happy hours, single groups, dating services, and put herself out there wherever she could. Within just two weeks of starting the Meet To Marry™ program, her family noticed a huge difference in LaShay and work opportunities just started flowing towards her. Soon she met Gill, who made her feel loved, seen, and special. Now they've been happily married for almost 3 years!

Meet to Marry™ is NOT for you if:

You don't want to find your soulmate, are content with fruitless, go nowhere dating and contemplating living life alone not receiving what you really need and want.

You aren't ready to transform your love life and the way you approach yourself and your relationships. You're okay with keeping your walls up and trust issues in place.

You don't want the opportunity to be loved fully as you are.

You're not open to learning or trying a new empowered, joyful and inspired approach to dating.

You're not going to do the work to shift your mindset, stop the cycle of unhealthy habits, and find your soulmate.

What is The Meet to Marry Method™ success rate?

At Meet to Marry™, we've been helping singles transform their lives, break through blockages to live their best lives, and find their soulmates for over 10 years.

If you do the work, Meet to Marry™ has a 100% success rate!

The Program is a Game Changer for Finding Love and truly knowing yourself

I joined Meet to Marry at a time in my life when I felt very frustrated about dating and wasn't sure my guy was out there.

I learned so much from Bari and MTM. Bari knows her stuff and is a straight shooter. She will identify whatever is blocking you and guide you in a firm and loving way. She helps you get clear on your vision and goals to create the life you want. It is 100% possible if you remain coachable, open and do the "WORK!" What I learned about myself and dating blew my mind. I was able to let go of things that weren't serving me and dream about the partner and life I wanted to create. The program changed my dating, and my life. I met my guy 5 months to the day after joining MTM and he's everything I ever wanted and more. I highly recommend this program if you're marriage-minded and looking for your soulmate. . You're in great hands with Bari.

"I met my guy 5 months to the day after joining and he's everything I ever wanted and more!"

Will this work for me even if I've been dating for a very long time and taken long breaks?

Yes! Many of our students have been actively dating or taking long breaks only to go back and realize that nothing has changed, leaving them disappointed and frustrated.

They are stuck in unconscious patterns that lead them to date the wrong person, time and time again -- which doesn't get them any closer to finding or marrying their soulmate.

By learning what keeps you stuck in a cycle of dead-end dates and trying a new, empowered approach to dating with a real 90-day plan -- you can break this pattern and move forward to find the love of your life.

I've tried EVERYTHING...will this really work?

Most of our clients have tried many different things that didn't work for them because they were "law of attraction" focused, not action-oriented or principled. Some were superficial like, "Get inside the minds of men" or they were not comprehensive and don't actually teach you how to find your person. Others shared that they did not feel supported and the mentor was not available to them in the way they needed.

When the student is ready, the right teacher appears.

Since I have walked in your shoes, I understand your struggles and created a practical solution that mirrors the work I did to find my true love and I've been teaching others how to do the same ever since. Our clients appreciate knowing this is a skill that anyone can learn with the right mentor and a proven plan.

I'm in therapy currently. Will this program be right for me?

Yes! Many of my clients are in traditional therapy or went to therapy in the past. Therapy is fantastic -- it's just not the answer to finding love. Infact, many therapists are impressed and intrigued by the quick and powerful transformations our clients experience!

What if I don't want to get married but I want to find my soulmate?

This is for anyone who wants to find a deep, loving, connected relationship with someone who truly sees and supports them. If you are looking for long-term commitment (no matter the form or name or label) this program is for you.

I've been married multiple times, will it work for me?

Half of our clients are in their 50's and have been divorced once or twice or even three times! They have found themselves stuck in a pattern and unless something is solved, they'll find themselves back in the divorce court again.

I will be flying back to Phoenix from seeing Ross in Cleveland. Our visit is going great! I appreciate Bari's recent video about needing to have attraction. Ross and I met on line. I liked his values and personality as we spoke on FaceTime for a month. I even said to myself that our age (later 50's) if he is a little out of shape when I meet him in person that I could settle. Well thank God, he is fit and hot, because being athletic is important to me. The moment that we saw one another we had chemistry. I am very happy. I started this program a year ago with skepticism as I could not find my soulmate. I endorse MTM process as it has worked beyond my expectations.

Etta, 26 Baltimore, Maryland

Last of her sisters to get married + Ready to give up on love

“Working with Bari helped me discover what I needed to do. What I needed to put into practice.”

LOVE CAN HAPPEN IN WEEKS NOT YEARS!

Etta was frustrated with the dating scene, it just felt like bad date after bad date for 7 years. She was the oldest of her four sisters and the last to get married -- which made her question if it was ever going to happen for her. Then she joined Meet to Marry™. She dug deep into her habits, internal cycles, and journey up to that point. That's when Etta changed her perspective on dating and she understood that she needed to have a plan. Her dating pipeline began to fill with GOOD dates and eventually she was introduced to her now husband. They knew within the first couple of weeks that their relationship was exactly what they had envisioned for their lives and got married in July!

Hi All!

As you may have heard, I've found the One!! My coworker set us up around early December and everything truly clicked into place! We got connected around the time when my grandmother passed away, which I think helped speed things up faster. We both have the same goals and visions and he has all the qualities I have been looking for since I created my empowerment statement and we're planning a summer wedding. He is kind, loving, caring, devoted, motivated, hardworking, and bit of a romantic, which is a huge plus for me 😊

We knew we were for each other pretty much within the first couple of weeks. I don't remember ever connecting with someone on such a deep level and truly feeling like I'm being myself and more with him. I also never thought I would date someone and become engaged within the span of 6 weeks but when it clicks, it clicks. I don't think it was an accident that my pipeline was (thankfully) full from the summer through Thanksgiving, which definitely helped me get closer to and recognize the man I've been looking for.

Thank you so much Bari Lyman for the incredible program and essentially MTM family that you've created and to Yelena Sigal for being an incredible accountability partner and friend! I feel so blessed to have been part of such a warm and supportive community as this one! Keep doing what you're doing everyone! He/She is out there looking for you as well 😊

Much love,

The Real Deal!

I can't even remember the time before MTM and Bari were part of my life! Bari is the absolute real deal and the MTM program will give you the tools you need to identify blockages holding you back from healthy love while also instilling in you the confidence and clarity that you need to express yourself, stand in your truth and make powerful choices when it comes to love (and in many aspects of life honestly). While Bari is warm and kind, she is a brilliant straight shooter who will speak the truth and guide you lovingly down the right path. I am excited for my new mindset/outlook on dating and I am confident that my soulmate is right around the corner. Bari is a gem and I am so grateful to have her on my side!

Real growth and abundance!

Meet To Marry is an amazing program that taught me to get clear on my goals, vision, and worth. I was able to identify what happened to me in the past, why I acted the way I did, and what I could change to be the best version of myself! The program not only teaches you how to find your partner, but also how to change your mindset and bring abundance into your life. Thank you Bari!

Meet to Marry is a one in a million program. There is nothing else out there like this. There are so many programs out there promising you results, without showing you how. Bari has a method that works!! Her kindness and experience are beyond unique - she's done the work herself and is a true professional. If you sign up for this program, you are lucky because you WILL meet someone you will marry!

For over 40 years I struggled with...

For over 40 years I struggled with relationships and how to find and keep the man of my dreams. I always thought that I needed to be prettier or thinner or have way more money or be sexier to have the man of my dreams. When i joined this program, it was a like a whole new way of living my life formed. I had no idea what I was doing wrong and in less than 9 days, my life changed and I met the most amazing man who truly loved me for who I am. Before I enrolled in this course, I had been thru year sof therapy, read every book on relationships I could get my hands on and even went thru the #1 coaching program in the world and none of them got me to my goal... this way of doing relationships works esp if you want to tryuly be happily married or a long term partner. You get more than your mate, you get yourself back... thank you Bari!!

With Bari you will thrive in all fields of your life.

I am living my dream life right now thanks to Bari and the Meet to Marry method. I waited all my life for this and it was so worth the wait, because I finally have a man in my life who is whom I always dreamed of. It's like all the pieces of the puzzle are in the right place now, instead of before trying to force.

I have no words to describe how amazingly amazing, present, supportive, generous, caring, emphatic, professional Bari is (and much more) she is always on your side supporting you all the way from the beginning to the end. Maybe the best way to describe for me is that if I have a million dollar (soon :) she will deserve it all, because her work is priceless and life changing. You will think that her MTM method is applied only to people who wants to get married. Instead MTM, if followed step by step, will change you forever in all fields of your life. You will thrive, dream big and make peace with your past. You'll have your soulmate in your life and live your dreams. I'll never be able to thank her enough, I try. Grazie Bari you are the best!

“Your approach was the most non-judgemental, calming, sweet, kind, comforting way. I felt safe with you. I also liked how if we were missing it, you did not hold back when you needed to be strong and I highly respect that.”

“The level of support--one on one with Bari, the group coaching calls, the accountability partner. For me, all of the modules and listening to the older recording calls were very insightful but the completion and bye-bye blind spots were the top two insightful parts of the course. It was very helpful to have the consistent feedback from Bari on Mondays too; week by week to stay on track exactly with where I was in the course (reinforcement really helps).”

“I really appreciate that MTM is a defined system towards reaching the ultimate marriage goal. Your methodology forces us to dig deeper into ourselves than anyone else has encouraged us to do.

MTM is far more productive than years of therapy. With the MTM method, we learn how to fix how we feel about ourselves and undo the limiting beliefs that resulted from years of self-loathing.”

Fascinating Experience

Meet to Marry is an amazing program that literally changes your life. It's not only a program that encourages a person to date the right way, it also has you delve inside yourself deeply to understand your childhood and adult life. I discovered so many things about myself that had never been examined. The program is so positive and has you do "work" that isn't even "work". The work leads to dating in a promising, positive way. I am loving the program and I know I will meet my soulmate!!!

I signed up for Bari's Meet to Marry...

I signed up for Bari's Meet to Marry course even after having taken a similar dating course before. What I have found with Bari is profound healing that I had spent years trying to achieve before. Through her generous coaching, mindset and spiritual and practical methods, I got past the things that were really holding me back. I got complete with an ex that for years I couldn't shake. I saw my childhood experiences with my parents and how they shaped me and formed my beliefs about love. This allowed me to finally understand There's Nothing Wrong With Me! I was a product of my circumstances. Now I am dating in a strategic empowered way, free of my past and it feels great! Dating is actually fun now! Bari's process and extremely helpful mantras have set me on my path to find my soulmate. I've never been so confident that I will be successful! Thank you Bari for all your deep support and compassion. It really makes all the difference in the world!

“ There was something this offered me that therapy never could.”

Therapy is rarely the answer to love

“Mara” is a psychotherapist who had a fulfilling career she LOVED and a widely supportive community but struggled with love for over 10 years. As a therapist herself, she thought she had done the work to solve her problems through meds and therapy yet, nothing changed. Now, she has a clear path to finding love and a perspective that no amount of therapy could give her. “Mara” is finally confident she can find her true match and complete her already amazing life!

“The course offered me exactly what I needed. Things that I couldn’t see before that no one could tell me. Like you said, we have guides and structure for everything in life, like education and career. But I really needed it with dating and I don’t know how else I would have received it. There was something that this offered me that therapy couldn’t. The structure, and thinking with a different part of my brain. Seeing habits and patterns more clearly and exercising the muscle to pull myself out of them and choose a different path in that moment.”
